2. BTW - Bring the Wheelchair
3. FWIW - Forgot Where I Was

JULY IS NATIONAL GRILLING MONTH

Get outside and start the grill - July is National Grilling Month! Not only do you get to experience being outside in the sunshine while you cook, you also get to enjoy the health benefits that result from grilling your food.

Grilled foods are known to be healthier than foods cooked on the stove or in the oven. This is because fewer vitamins and minerals are lost when food is grilled compared to other methods such as baking or frying. Also, grilling allows food to retain moisture while the fat contained in or on the food drips out of it, decreasing the fat content.

REMEMBER: Not all grilled food is healthy. Adding toppings like sauces and butter increase calories and fats. Luckily, there are plenty of healthy grilling options that everyone can enjoy.

Healthy Grilling Options:
- Choose lean meats such as, ground beef, sirloin, skinless chicken, fish, or tofu.
- Instead of using marinade or oil to flavor the meat, try using a dry or low sodium seasoning.
- Grilled vegetables such as corn on the cob, zucchini, broccoli, asparagus, or sweet potatoes are always a delicious option.
- Another benefit to grilling is that even grilled bananas, peaches, and pineapples taste great!

Safe Grilling Tips:
- Marinate foods in the refrigerator (never on the counter or outdoors.)
- Cook food thoroughly.
- The grill should be placed well away from home, and out from under leaves and overhanging branches.
- Keep your grill clean by removing grease or fat buildup from the grills and in trays below grill.
- Never leave your grill unattended.

Fun Facts About Grilling:
- 63% of the U.S. population grills monthly.
- 62% of Americans own an outdoor grill.
- The four foods grilled most often are: #1 Hamburgers, #2 Steak, #3 Hotdogs, #4 Chicken.

- The 4th of July is the largest grilling holiday, followed by Memorial Day, and Labor Day.

What better time to grill than summertime? Grilling is a great way to eat well while hanging outside with friends and family.
