AN ANONYMOUS TEACHER'S LETTER

When I look around my classroom I couldn't tell you who crawled first, who walked before one or spoke in sentences by 15 months. I can't tell you if their parents breastfed or bottle fed. I don't know if they were potty trained at 18 months or 4 years old. I don't know if their mom ever left them to cry it out for a few minutes or if they strapped them to their bodies 24/7. You know what I can tell when I look at my kids? I can tell which families value kindness and manners in their homes. I can tell when a child feels loved and secure at home. I know who has pizza and movies Friday nights and which mom reads in different voices for bedtimes. I see how kids handle scary situations like thunderstorms. I can see who has a solid routine at home and who has chores and responsibilities. I can hear how you speak to your children by how they speak to others. When I look at my little friends I don't see their milestones, I see who they are: their heart, their actions, their inner voice, their struggles and triumphs and I see you; and all the love you pour into them. We are always supposed to talk about testing and benchmarks during parent teacher conferences, and I had a mom last time look at me and say "I don't worry about all the reading and math, she will get there. I want to knowhow is she, as a person? Is she kind? Does she include others?" That took my breath away and is something that will always stick with me. Go easy on yourselves mamas, just love your little ones....it's all they need!

APPLE CINNAMON CAKE RECIPE

This apple cinnamon cake is equally good for breakfast or dessert. Easy to make, it's super moist on the inside and has a crispy, cinnamon-rich crunch on the outside.

INGREDIENTS

- * 1 package yellow cake mix (regular size)
- * 1 can (21 ounces) apple pie filling
- * 4 large eggs, room temperature
- * 2/3 cup canola oil
- * 6 tablespoons cinnamon sugar

GLAZE

- * 1 cup confectioners' sugar
- * 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- * 1 to 2 tablespoons water

DIRECTIONS

- * Pre-heat oven to 350°. Grease and flour a 10-in fluted tube (bundt) pan. Combine cake mix, pie filling, eggs and oil; beat on low speed 30 seconds. Beat on medium 2 minutes. Pour half of the batter into prepared pan. Sprinkle with 3 tablespoons cinnamon sugar. Add remaining cake batter; top with remaining cinnamon sugar.
- * Bake until a toothpick inserted in center comes out clean, 40-45 minutes. Cool in the pan for 10 minutes before removing to a wire rack to cool completely.
- * Mix confectioners' sugar, cinnamon and enough water to reach desired consistency. Spoon glaze over cake, allowing some to flow over sides.

YIELD: 12 servings.

"September...The breezes taste of apple peel. The air is full of smells to feel- Ripe fruit, old footballs, burning brush, new books, erasers, chalk, and such. The bee, his hive, well-honeyed hum, and Mother cuts Chrysanthemums. Like plates washed clean, with suds, the days, are polished with a morning haze!"

BACK-TO-SCHOOL POOL PARTY PICTURES

On Wednesday, August 10, 2022, our CCHA Annual Back-to-School Pool Party was held at the West Carroll High School. To help kick-off another fantastic school year, CCHA distributed backpacks filled with school supplies and goodies to all the children in attendance. The Carroll County Housing Authority would like to extend a sincere "THANK YOU" once again to JO-CARROLL ENERGY for graciously donating the backpacks for all the children.
